

National Resources

Rx Assist: This organization provides information about financial assistance for prescription medications from pharmaceutical manufacturers' patient assistance programs and other sources.	www.rxassist.org
800-Age-Info is a website for Massachusetts Elders and their Families.	www.800ageinfo.com
AARP is a nonprofit, nonpartisan membership organization that helps people 50 and over improve the quality of their lives.	www.aarp.org
Administration on Aging: The mission of AoA is to develop a comprehensive, coordinated and cost-effective system of home and community-based services that helps elderly individuals maintain their health and independence in their homes and communities.	www.aoa.gov
Alzheimer's Association: This website will have all the information you need about Alzheimer's and how they can help you and your loved one.	www.alz.org
Alzheimer's Foundation of America: More information about Alzheimer's and different resources for the caregivers.	www.alzfdn.org
Assister Living Facilities: Assisted-Living-Directory.com lists numerous facilities and, at times, other senior care options, organized by state, and then by city.	www.assisted-living-directory.com
Assisted Senior Living: Also lists numerous facilities with pictures, contacts, costs as well as government rating when available.	www.assistedseniorliving.net
Caregivers: provides a comprehensive resources about senior housing and elder care options to seniors and families in need. A Place for Mom provides seniors and families with one-on-one guidance and assistance during this difficult process.	www.aplaceformom.com
Family Caregiver Alliance: FCA has developed a wide array of services and publications based on caregiver needs and offers programs at local, state, and national levels.	www.caregiver.org

Family Caregiver America: The National Caregivers Library was created by FamilyCare America, Inc. and is one of the largest single sources of information and tools for caregivers and seniors in the country.	www.caregiverslibrary.org
Hospice and Palliative Care Federation of Ma. The mission of the Hospice & Palliative Care Federation of Massachusetts is to advance and promote excellence in end-of-life care.	www.hospicefed.org
Medicare.gov-Caregiver: This site provides information for Caregivers in all areas, financial, respite, services, etc.	www.medicare.gov/caregivers
Medicare: Hospital Compare: This site gives information on all aspects of Hospital so that you can compare services at each.	www.hospitalcompare.hhs.gov
Medicare Part D: Need a Prescription Plan, this is the site for you. Simply enter all your medications and it will come up with a site that meets your needs.	https://www.medicare.gov/find-a-plan/questions/home.aspx
National Alliance for Caregiving: educates, supports, empowers and speaks up for the more than 65 million Americans who care for loved ones with a chronic illness or disability or the frailties of old age.	www.thefamilycaregiver.org
National Council on Aging is a national voice for older adults—especially those who are vulnerable and disadvantaged—and the community organizations that serve them.	www.ncoa.org
National Institute on Aging provides information and tips on healthy aging, care giving, medications, dietary supplements, and diseases.	www.nia.nih.gov/HealthInformation
Now What Jobs provides job information for those over 40.	www.nowwhatjobs.net
Social Security Administration	www.ssa.gov
Parent Care Solutions: Tools for families to prepare for tomorrow.	http://www.parentcaresolution.com/default.asp
Department of Veterans.	http://www.va.gov/

Descriptions of Web-sites were taken from the About Us Section on the individual websites.